Civil Rights

Civil rights are basic rights that every citizen has under the laws of the government. Civil rights for every person means that regardless of gender, skin colour, religion, nationality, age, disability, or religion, a person should not be discriminated against. Civil rights include the right to free speech, privacy, religion, assembly, a fair trial, and freedom of thought.

Emmeline Pankhurst (15 July 1858 – 14 June 1928) was a British political activist and organizer of the British suffragette movement who helped women win the right to vote.

Rosa Parks (February 4, 1913 – October 24, 2005) was an American activist in the civil rights movement best known for her pivotal role in the Montgomery bus boycott.

Martin Luther King Jr. (January 15, 1929 – April 4, 1968) was an American Christian minister and activist who became the most visible spokesperson and leader in the Civil Rights Movement from 1955 until his assassination in 1968.

Nelson Mandela was a South African anti-apartheid revolutionary, political leader, and philanthropist who served as President of South Africa from 1994 to 1999. He was the country's first black head of state and the first elected in a fully representative democratic election.

Activities to complete at home

1. Create a Fact file about the Yellow Spotted Lizard.
2. Get creative!! Draw, paint or make a model of a Yellow Spotted Lizard.
3. Write a speech about something you strongly believe in.
4. Create a poster to accompany your speech. Illustrating your thoughts and ideas.
5. Find out what your Civil Rights are. Choose the 5 that are most important to you

Here are some homework activities which can be completed at anytime. Any completed homework should be brought into school so it can be shared, celebrated and displayed.

Our Civil Rights topic is cross curricular with English, based around setting descriptions and recount writing using descriptive techniques such as adverbial phrases and figurative language; biographies using a variety of sentence structures and formal language and persuasive writing focussing on choice of language and grammatical structures.

We will cover a lot of learning in Maths this term in preparation for SATs, including: measure, ratio and proportion, percentages, order of operations. As well as this, we will be re-visiting crucial learning from the Autumn term, including work on the four operations ($=$, $-$, \times and \div).

In addition, the children also need to continue to ensure they have a quick, accurate recall of \times table facts up to 12×12 as well as related division facts.

READING

Thank you for all the support you are giving reading at home.

It is school's expectation that children read for a minimum of 10 minutes per night .

SPELLINGS

Your child will be bringing home spellings every week. Please help your child by practising them regularly ready for their weekly test .

MATHLETICS

Mathletics is being accessed regularly by many children. Please continue your efforts encouraging your children to take advantage of this amazing resource for learning.
