15TH DECEMBER 2023

Dear Everyone,

Well we have made it to the last week of term. It has been a long and busy one with lots of opportunities for some amazing learning and experiences.

We've had trips, workshops and sports events and we'll end the term in the time honoured fashion of our Key Stage 1 Nativity.

The children and staff have put in a massive effort rehearsing and getting ready to share this very special Christmas event with you. Please use your reply slip as a ticket to come and see the children. We have also divided the performances to those where toddlers are welcome and those for adults only. Please do adhere to this performances as it makes the performances more enjoyable for all.

On Monday our School Choir, who are frantically rehearsing for the fabulous Young Voices event, will be spreading some Christmas cheer at the end of the school day by serenading you home with some carols. I hope you enjoy them.

Festive jumpers can be worn instead of school jumpers Wednesday and Thursday next week. All other uniform should be worn.

Have a super weekend,

D. Holland

Merry Christmas? For some children and families Christmas can be a stressful time...change in routines, lots of visitors, loud noises, flickering lights, lots of presents etc. Here are some suggestions which may help reduce stress for you and your little one:

- Pre-build presents (including batteries) before wrapping. This means no waiting time to go and play!
- Use see-through paper or a rip in the paper if anticipation is stress inducing.
- Only give one present at a time - or spread throughout the day so that your child does not get overwhelmed.
- Have empty cardboard boxes with days written on so your child can place the present in the box to play with later.
- Use a simple social story with visuals (Widget.com is free for 21 days!) to prepare your child for changes in routine.
- Allocate a safe space for your child to go to whenever they need it.

I do hope these tricks support you to have a very merry Christmas.

Have a lovely weekend.
