19TH SEPTEMBER 2025

Hello parents and carers,

What a delightful week we have had here at Turves Green Primary School!

I have met some wonderful pupils in Reception, who have shown me some great learning. They really have made a brilliant start to their school lives.

In year 5, we welcomed visitors from Lloyds bank, who taught our pupils about digital literacy and financial safety. Pupils represented our school fantastically and thoroughly enjoyed their learning. A huge thank you to our guests for dedicating their time and efforts to our pupils' wider knowledge.

Year 6 have made a great start to swimming lessons, it has been wonderful to hear about how they have jumped right in... no pun intended there! Perhaps soon we will see an Olympian emerge from our groups!

Across the school, pupils have been logging in to Mathletics and Times Table Rock Stars. I have seen some high scores from pupils in different year groups - but I wonder if anyone can get themselves into the Mathletics Hall of Fame, which shows the top students in the country and the entire world!

It looks like we are predicted rain for the weekend ahead, but I hope that doesn't put a dampener on anyone's plans.

As always, thank you for your cooperation and support,

Take care and enjoy your weekend,

Mr Lewis
Head of School

Composer of the week

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827):

Ludwig van Beethoven was born in Bonn, Germany. His father, who was a singer, was his first teacher. After a while, even though he was still only a boy, Ludwig became a traveling performer, and soon, he was supporting his family.

In his early twenties, Beethoven moved to Vienna, where he spent the rest of his life. Beethoven was one of the first composers to make a living without being employed by the church or a member of the nobility. At first, he was known as a brilliant pianist. But when he was around 30 years old, Beethoven started going deaf. Even though he could no longer hear well enough to play the piano, Beethoven composed some of his best music after he was deaf!

Beethoven is considered one of the greatest musical geniuses who ever lived. He may be most famous for his nine symphonies, but he also wrote many other kinds of music: chamber and choral music, piano music and string quartets, and an opera.

Outdoor Play and Learning

It's that time of year again where we start to collect more items for our children to play with outside at breaktimes and lunchtimes. Last year, we had some fantastic donations from many families in our school community. Thank you so much for that!

Next week, we would like to ask children if they have any Lego, dinosaurs, vehicles or dolls that they no longer play with to be donated for all to enjoy. It might help you have a little bit of a clear out too. Teachers will also share this information with children. They should bring the donations into class with them. Let's see which classroom can cross off the whole BINGO card.
