Dear Everyone,

Happy Friday!

Succeeding Together is definitely the Excelsior value we have demonstrated this week. Thank you for the fabulous turnout to the Reading Workshops run for our year 2 parents and carers. Thanks to Mrs Watkins and Ms Craven for sharing all their amazing knowledge. A big thank you to Mrs Jones and year 6 for succeeding in a fabulous informative class 6J assembly.

In other news, some of you may have been wondering if Mrs Spruce has started eating lots of Christmas treats 😊 but we are really excited to share with you that she is having a baby - we know that you will send her lots of love and luck.

Christmas does seem now that it is just around the corner and so included in the pages of this newsletter are details of events that are coming up.

Have a great weekend.

Inclusion Corner PACE!

Dr Dan Hughes, an American psychologist, developed the PACE approach after working with traumatised children, however the PACE approach is great for all. PACE stands for:

- Playfulness - enjoy being with your child in an unconditional way. Join in with your child's fun and games!
- Acceptance - unconditional acceptance will ensure your child feels safe. Accepting who they are and their emotions is essential.
- Curiosity - be curious about your child's interests, thoughts, feelings etc.
- Empathy - you are with them in their moments of difficulty and know their feelings are important.

Using these principles help children to feel safe and emotionally connected. Using these principles is shown to develop emotional resilience and deepen our connections with them.

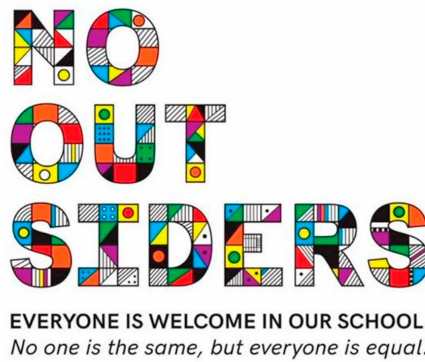

Interested? Search 'PACE emotions' online for information and examples or see the great visual example here:

Have a lovely weekend.

What do you see in the left hand picture, is it an old picture or taken recently? How do you know? What do you think this person's job is / was? (tip there is a clue in the English Heritage plaque)
