4TH NOVEMBER 2022

Dear everyone,

Well, the weather has been particularly wet this week, but we've still managed to have a very learning filled week at school.

It is lovely to start to be able to welcome you back into school and a massive well done to 5S for our very first-class assembly of the school year. The children, though some obviously a little nervous, did an amazing job and shared their learning with everyone so well. As one of the children in the audience commented it was like watching 'Horrible Histories' what a great compliment.

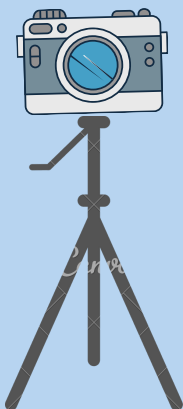

I managed to catch up with Mrs Spruce this week and we have started the discussion about our EYFS and KS1 Nativity. Keep an eye on the calendar for when our performances will be.

Just a reminder about a couple of events coming up, we will be selling poppies in the mornings in the front playground from Tuesday next week.

We have our uniform swap shop on Friday and the following Friday we will be supporting children in need by wearing something spotty to school.

We hope you have a happy and safe Bonfire weekend.

Aperture Portraits were in school today taking the children's photographs. Please order any photos online using the card provided. Please note that these may take up to 48 hours to be available. Aperture Portraits kindly donated a golden ticket to school, which entitled one child to their photographs for free. All children in school were allocated a number and a raffle was drawn at random. The winning number was 45 and the parent of the lucky winner has been contacted to let them know that they will be able to order their photos at a discount.

Inclusion Corner

We are delighted to be hosting a Speech and Language Workshop on November 21st with the SEND Therapy Team. They will also be supporting us to set up groups targeting specific needs in KS1 and EYFS next week. Can't wait till the Workshop? Here's some strategies you can try at home in the meantime:

Have fun joining in with the Mr. Tongue story (Attached via email)

Can the child fill in the missing word in known rhymes? i.e. Baa, baa, black ____

Guess the word: It starts with b and you kick it.

Clap the beats in a word

Have fun trying these and please join us on November 21st!
